Editorial Review

Review

"This is an important book for students, policy makers and practitioners in the ageing and social policy fields because it provides essential theoretical and empirical insights into a critical issue for the well-being of older people. It is highly recommended."--Alan Walker, The University of Sheffield (01/17/2012)

"With contributions by scholars at the cutting edges of their fields, this interdisciplinary collection of reports from around the world will be crucial to the study of the global political economy of aging."--Toni Calasanti, Virginia Tech (01/23/2012)
