Well Performance By Michael Golan

"This book has evolved from course notes prepared for production engineering courses taught at the Norwegian Institute of Technology (NTH) in Trondheim and for industry courses dealing specifically with the performance of high-capacity oil and gas wells. Although the purpose of the book is to aid in teaching of well performance, it should be useful as a reference book for engineers already performing some elements of well performance." -Michael Golan and Curtis H. Whitson Trondheim, Norway
