Editorial Review

Review

"Who or What is God? is a choice selection of John Hick's substantial essays. Professor Hick is forthright as ever in advocacy while at the same time always engagingly modest: 'My own version is of course not the only version, and there is endless scope for constructive discussion among liberal thinkers.' Not recommended for readers who are nervous of sanity in theology and church." --George Newlands, Professor of Divinity, University of Glasgow

"John Hick is undoubtedly the greatest living philosopher of global religion. This collection of essays gives a very clear and readable account of his mature views, and will be eagerly read by his many admirers." --Keith Ward, Regius Professor of Divinity, University of Oxford

About the Author

JOHN HICK is an internationally read and discussed philosopher of religion and theologian. His many books have, between them, been translated into seventeen languages. More than twenty books have been published about his work in English, German, French, Chinese and Japanese.
