Accounting: A Smart Approach By Mary Carey, Cathy Knowles, Jane Towers-Clark

Are you looking for a fresh, innovative approach to accounting that will engage your students and truly bring the subject to life? Then meet Sam Smart. In chapter one we meet Sam as he is setting up his own business and looking at the financial information needed when starting to trade. We then follow him through the textbook as he assesses the success of his business, finances day to day activities, makes pricing decisions, opens new branches, looks at cash flow, and facilitates planning, control, and investment.

Developed specifically with non-specialist students in mind, and tested and reviewed by business students, this is the perfect textbook for your introductory accounting module. Covering all the core topics found on a typical introductory accounting module, this fully integrated case study will give students the confidence they need to successfully approach their course and exams. Combined with the wealth of additional examples and self-test exercises available, students will not only develop an appreciation of how accounting information allows a manager to make key business decisions, but they will also acquire the skills necessary to enable them to converse with accountants, and challenge their assumptions and methodologies.

Through the provision of integrated PowerPoint slides, a comprehensive question pack and a detailed assessment guide, lecturers are provided with a comprehensive and reliable package of support, which is vital when teaching large student cohorts.

An Online Resource Centre accompanies the textbook and includes:

For Students:

Additional questions and exercises (including questions covering higher level material)

RSS feeds for up-to-date news stories on relevant topics.

For Lecturers:

Fully integrated and customisable PowerPoint slides

Question pack plus solutions

Assessment guide

Editorial Review

Review

"It is nice to see a new approach to covering what can be a generally 'dull' area!!" --Robert Shaw - Student at Durham University

"I have personally found accounting difficult in my first year and this [material] has made things clearer" --Alexandra Smith - Student at Loughborough University

"There are a myriad of texts seeking to access this market. This text IS a new approach to the market. That is a great strength and a potential competitive advantage." --Ian Crawford, Lecturer, School of Management, University of Bath

"I very much like the case study approach, it is easy to read, understand and work through. This should engage students and bring the topic to life." --Libby Scott, Senior Lecturer, Accounting and Finance, London South Bank University
