Ultimate Navigation Manual By Lyle Brotherton

All the techniques you need to become an expert navigator.

The Ultimate Navigation Manual is a unique guide to finding your way on land – from the basic principles right up to the advanced technology of GPS. Designed to allow even the absolute beginner to find their way anywhere in the world, it also develops a unique confidence in navigation – with or without technical aids.

With a preface by Sir Ranulph Fiennes, contents will also include:

Environmental clues – Using the natural environment to navigate

Maps – An introduction to the different types of maps

The Compass and North – How compasses work, how to use them and how to choose the right one

Map and Compass Navigation – twenty-five easy-to-learn skills are described

Relocation Procedures – What to do when lost, dealing with well-known relocation procedures and some ground-breaking new ones

Stellar Navigation – Simple methods that are easy to learn

GNSS (GPS) Navigation – Why Global Satellite Navigation Systems are the most significant advance in navigation since the invention of the magnetic compass; details all of the systems now available, including the American GPS

Specialist environments and equipment – Which techniques are best, where and how to use them in environments such as the Arctic, coastal areas, desert regions, jungles or forests, mountains and urban areas

Written by one of the world's leading search and rescue consultants designed to emphasise navigation problems – this is the ultimate guide to not losing your way.
