So you want to be a vinyl installation pro?

You need more than some vinyl film and a squeegee to apply vinyl or wrap vehicles with the best of them. You need some insider tips and tricks from the pros. Find out what every vinyl application pro needs to know in this e-book by veteran sign industry reporter Jennifer LeClaire.

This how-to style e-book is jam packed with advice from industry experts and colorful illustrations from leading vinyl gurus and manufacturers. You'll discover:

How to avoid the most common mistakes vinyl installers make

Simple vinyl application techniques that guarantee success

How to weed even the trickiest letters

How to avoid environmental factors that could cause you headaches

How to prepare the surface for optimum adhesion

The pros and cons of wet and dry applications

How to use premask, AKA application tape, the right way

And much more!

Vinyl Application 101 offers you a primer on the basics of vinyl application and offers you a few expert tricks that you can build on. This 100-page e-book features an introduction by Nathan Frazblau, founder of the Professional Decal Application Association, and a vinyl installer's glossary.

Vinyl application training schools and videos could cost you hundreds – or even thousands. This e-book series will put you on the fast track to vinyl application profits.
