For Adam Winters, the new director of the Frequency Ghost Hunter's Guild, finding the Burning Lamp would not only save his life but possibly the entire planet of Harmony. While exploring the rain forest and catacombs under Frequency, Adam discovers a mirrored maze that could be the power force that has kept Harmony running for centuries, but something about the maze's energy patterns is dangerously out of sync. Locating the Burning Lamp might not only prevent Adam from turning into a psychic rogue but it could also restore stability to the maze. Fortunately for Adam, Marlowe Jones, the new head of Jones and Jones Investigations, is already on the track of the missing relic and has the necessary dreamlight skills to work it. In the latest flawlessly written addition to her futuristic romantic-suspense series, Castle cleverly clicks the final pieces of her Dreamlight Trilogy into place, creating a fast-paced, sexy, and witty treat. --John Charles
