Making a Difference in Preaching: Haddon Robinson on Biblical Preaching

By Haddon W. Robinson

Haddon Robinson's Biblical Preaching continues to be a best-seller (over 200,000 copies sold) and has been used extensively in Bible colleges and seminaries since 1980. Robinson's peers named him the most outstanding professor in the field of homiletics and Newsweek magazine identified him as one of the most significant preachers in America.

Now, this collection of Robinson's shorter writings on preaching across a forty-year period helps to illuminate the key differences between good preaching and poor preaching. Edited by Scott Gibson, this volume provides readers with a helpful understanding of Robinson's preaching theory, method, and practice. Each chapter contains discussion/reflection questions and a list of books for further reading. The book is well-suited for experienced and budding pastors looking for refreshing insights into their preaching.
