Domestic Violence: A Reference Handbook, 2nd Edition (Contemporary World Issues) By Margi Laird McCue

This thoroughly revised second edition is an examination of domestic violence from social, legal, and historical perspectives.

- A chronology that stretches from 753 BCE, when Romulus, the founder of Rome, formalized the first "law of marriage" to January 2006, when President George W. Bush signed the third reauthorization of the 1994 Violence against Women Act
- Illustrations include the power and control wheel (a model in the form of a wheel that explains the dynamics of domestic violence), the ecological theory of battering, and the characteristics of the victim as illustrated by the World Health Organization
