A New Adult Romance Story \**Due to sexually graphic content and language that some may find offensive, this book is intended for mature readers only**** Jenny finally feels that she is able to focus firmly on her future. Although she missed out on a chance to land a steady soap opera gig, she has made her feelings for Jon known and is eager to try out for more auditions. However, her life hits some rough water when a ghost from her past returns to ruin her present. With threats looming over her head, Rich enters her life again as a saving grace. Now Jenny has a blooming movie career and her past firmly behind her. But things are not always how they seem and rising fame comes with a price. Jenny discovers love doesn't always work out the way that she plans and friends aren't always the people she thinks they are. As Jenny navigates Hollywood, she finds herself struggling to fit in with her new life. With the walls closing in around her, will Jenny be able to face the fear head on, or will she merely sink and drown under the waves? Read the story to find out what happens.
